

The Knitter's Companion by Vicki Square, contains information about every knitting stitch imaginable. If you find that the book is difficult to follow, you may want to put in the included CD for a better visual understanding.

Hoopla: The Art Of Unexpected Embroidery by Leanne Prain, is a highly unusual book for the not so typical embroiderer. In this book you will find twenty-eight embroidery projects that are not the regular flower patterns one would usually see. Each artist featured has a unique style, creating an innovative work of art, including a jackalope, a pair of tattooed church gloves, and many more. Check out this book today.

Learn to paint with the book Flowers in Watercolour by Wendy Tait. Inside you'll find 24 outlines, color palettes, tips on mixing colors, and painting backgrounds. This amazing book is full of creative ideas to paint flowers like Oriental Poppies, Wild Roses, Hollyhocks, and more.

David Bellamy's Complete Guide to Watercolour Painting contains advice on painting still life, flowers and plants, landscapes, buildings, and coastal scenery. Step by step color demonstrations and photographs will start you on your way to creating a beautiful work of art.

Pillsbury published their 2012 Annual Recipes that include Pillsbury Bake-Off contest winners. This book contains over 300 pages of delicious recipes like Sweet Temptations, Fresh Pasta Dishes, Heartwarming Soups and Chilies and more. All Pillsbury recipes are tested in the Pillsbury kitchens and must meet certain standards like easy preparation, reliability and great taste.

Other books of interest include: Taste of Homes Holiday & Celebrations 2011 cookbook, The Greater Journey: American in Paris by David McCullough, Critters of Mossy Creek by Deborah Smith, Martha Crockett, Sandra Chastain, and Debra Dixon, and The Landscape Photography Field Guide by Carl Heilman II.